

Devoteam Management Consulting becomes Devoteam Digital Impulse

Paris, January 17, 2022 - Devoteam, leading consulting firm in EMEA announces the merger of its Management Consulting team into a global Devoteam Digital Impulse entity.

New year and new challenges:

A new chapter opens for the Devoteam Group's Digital Transformation Consulting entity in 2022.

Devoteam Digital Impulse will address a new vision of consulting, multiplying the reading grids, crossing the views and disciplines to drive changes that will positively impact all dimensions of Devoteam clients' activities: technological, business, human and environmental.

This change will open new paths with Devoteam clients, to interact with conviction on Strategy, Design and Change projects.

It will also bring up a new generation of consultants, a committed and passionate team, digital natives and game changers.

About Devoteam

Devoteam is a leading consulting firm focused on digital strategy, tech platforms and cybersecurity. By combining creativity, tech and data insights, we empower our customers to transform their business and unlock the future.

With 25 years' experience and 8,500 employees across Europe, Africa and the Middle East, Devoteam promotes responsible tech for people and works to create better change.

Press contacts